

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN

DISTRICT OF

NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V.

David Saavedra

Defendant.

MOTION AND ORDER DISMISSING
THE COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

CASE NUMBER: 21-MJ-533

MOTION FOR AN ORDER DISMISSING THE COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

The United States of America hereby moves to dismiss the complaint without prejudice as to the above named defendant. Counsel for defendant (where applicable), Karloff Commissiong, Esq, does not oppose this motion.

- ☐ Defendant is in custody and should be released.
☐ Defendant is incarcerated on another matter and should not be released
☒ Defendant is not in custody and was released on a bond not secured with property.
☐ Defendant is not in custody and was released on a bond secured with property.
☐ Defendant is not in custody and is not released on a bond.

June 2, 2021

Date

ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY David Lizmi

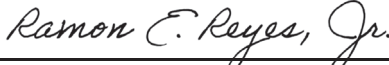

ORDER DISMISSING THE COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE

The United States having moved to dismiss the complaint without prejudice and there being no opposition, the motion to dismiss the complaint without prejudice is granted and any outstanding underlying warrants are hereby vacated.

☐ The United States must cooperate with defendant or his counsel in promptly executing all documents necessary to vacate any liens recorded against property and sureties securing the bond.
SO ORDERED.

6/2/2021

Date

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
Hon. Ramon E. Reyes, Jr.

TO: THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

- ☐ It is further Ordered that the United States Marshals Service for the Eastern District of New York release the above named defendant.
☐ It is further Ordered that the United States Marshals Service for the Eastern District of New York not release the above named defendant since he is incarcerated on another matter.

Date

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE
Hon. Ramon E. Reyes, Jr.